

LETTERS FROM THE TROOPS

Being deployed, I know what it's like whenever people send you care packages. Things could be extremely rough, and you could be in the dumps, but the minute you see that you have a package, it's an instant mood booster! It definitely helps with the morale, since you're separated from your loved ones. It can be lonely sometimes. Thank you so much for what y'all do! We really do appreciate everything. You have no idea how much we appreciate everything that y'all do!

LETTERS FROM THE TROOPS

I've been in the U.S. Army for 15 years. This is my 8th deployment and my 5th to Afghanistan. It's hard to imagine a life of peace where I spend each evening at home with my family. Receiving a care package gives us a feeling of comfort and joy. It makes us feel like the United States is still behind us in this 17 year conflict and we're not alone. We love our Country and everything it stands for.
